Subject: The DE BRISSAC Mission of the French I.S.			Date 18 Nov 52

PERTINENT INFORMATION:

"6. When asked to specify as to the nature of these documents (documents of great interest to France) the Frenchmen answered that they pertained to the National Bank of France. They admitted that together with the documents there was a treasure of some several millions in value, stolen in French Africa by the Germans. Documents and treasure were reported to be somewhere in the area between COMO and VARESE. They then stated that they were anxious to do the thing quickly and promised the agent a reward if he would assist them.

7. The affair was reported to SABAINI who knew already that PASTORE was willing to exchange his liberty for information as to the location of the valuables which were hidden at the disposition of Lt. ZIMMER who intended to use them to form a 5th Column."
